1.1.79
a Lesson in the University of The New Covenant
Theodore Cottingham, August 14, 2003
www.NewCovenant.me

1. They will come and they will stay. They will stay and they will come. They will come and they will come. They will stay and they will stay.

From all walks and every age and socio-economic strata—seekers, seekers seeking Me, seeking Me, seeking more because something in their hearts—Me, and what I built into them crying out, of Me—know that there is more, for them, in this life, and it's important for them to find it and fulfill it. It becomes worth it, it becomes worth it all, whatever it takes, to become free enough to find My design for them, just like it did you.

2. You knew there was more and you were dying to find it. You were dying to find life—and finally your pain plus your intense knowing there was more, propelled you into life, life, life—but death first.

You decided you were willing to die to find life—you were willing to die to your self—all you knew and all you were experiencing and all you had been taught—you died. You died—you gave Me absolutely all, all, all, unreservedly all, and Ted, that's what I require of all—who want Me enough to want Me in fullness.

Without measure?—without measure?—you ask—without measure Ted?—for those who come to Me without measure. Those who come as you did instead of meting out to Me in metes and bounds what I can do and say and touch in them and in their lives—their prescribing to Me what they allow Me to do, say, and touch.

3. Oh Ted, the religious have it backwards—for so many of My religious over prescribe to Me how they will let Me speak to them, and what they will even speak to Me about. They don't lay down their lives in totality of absoluteness—they don't—few do—for few role models they have of death—complete death of self, resurrected by My resurrecting power—empowering them to walk in the intense, magnificent, splendid, gracious, all-encompassing power of meekness, meekness, meekness, and humility instead of the arrogance so may religious walk in.

4. Ted, I always challenged the religious for they always wanted to prescribe to Me how I operated, what I did when, and how I did it, and who I did what with. How ludicrous.

5. How contol-less I am to many religious—not knowing that My death on My Cross is a portrait of every person—taking—giving their life, in totality of absoluteness, absolute totality—permeating all-encompassing death to self—to receive the power of My resurrection in power measureless—in power without measure, in power personified in Me, and in Me in them, and them in Me.

6. Prescribe to Me they will not do though they do it daily, all the time, limiting Me, instead of opening to Me and inquiring of Me, and letting Me teach them directly, and open My scriptures to them in ways and powerful planes of linkage and understanding that sets free and reveals Me in limitless measure.

7. Limitless measure in the areas of their lives they let Me, for I choose to move in those who do what I did. I choose to move in those who do what I do. I choose to move in those that I can move in, in limitless measure. And Ted, that's more and more.

8. Every heart that gets a glimpse of the freedom and power that I offer them, and gives Me a moment of thought, even a moment, even a nanosecond, I can multiply—I can divide and multiply and exponentialize those moments into life abundant—if I am not stopped.

9. I can do as I please—you are My creation, but I have chosen to choose those who choose Me.

10. Are you not the same oh reader/hearer? Are you not the same, oh flesh, oh spirit, made all in My likeness? Think you separate from Me and I have attributes not like you?

11. I have many measureless attributes yet I embodied many of My Me into My creation to see, feel, and understand Me, and I laid Me out before you and gave you both written records and spiritual authenticity for you, if you come open, open to see, open to read, open to hear—and now—open to write.

12. I will fill My earth with My words to Mine of Me for those to see and say and eat of My truth in measureless measure, and accelerate the maturity of the young so that your sons and daughters will excel and surpass you, and their sons and daughters will excel and surpass them, and on and on into generations until I come in full presentation of Myself.

13. Oh Ted, those who think I am not calling My body to write what I have given them and what I will give them, are stuck—in their rut of emotionless, in-adventure, without the freedomizing empowerment of My networking globalization that takes all I am and breaks Me to all around them and to each other, and allows Me to operate in them all in synergy of My Spirit.

14. Oh power, oh power, oh power—electro-magnetometers and nuclear generators and atom splitting devices have not begun to touch the power I will display through the heart that measures Me not, limits Me not, but welcomes My presence with joy and laughter, and intimacy with Me enjoys.

15. Power—awakening
Awakening—
Awakening I am My sleeping giants who have limited Me and lethargic became.

16. You Ted, will point the way and voice will I give you beyond voice. You're Mine. You're no longer yours—you died and you promised not to resurrect yourself—you let Me resurrect you and you operate in Me, and connecting you I am with My connectors of connectors to complete networks of synergizers of Me who will move and let Me be Me in them and through them.

17. Mammon will bow before you and seek shelter, for My power is not subject to any other power. I am power, I am limitless. I am infinite. And Ted, I operate in humility and by design, by design, by design—oh Ted, My design I am giving you for special and specific tasks of fulfilling prophecies of freedom in My Mine that people of measure don't even realize are prophecies.

18. Oh Ted, eye has not seen nor ear heard, neither has it entered into the heart of man, the things which I have prepared for those who will let Me move in and through them without measure. 1 Corinthians 2:9 Ted. I took you there. I placed that verse into your consciousness yesterday and I spoke the reference to you again.

19. Am I limited? Am I measured? Can you or any religious zealot measure Me?

20. How arrogant My religious are for they limit Me and prescribe to Me and Ted, this is not the day I will tolerate it. Set aside are those who prescribe to Me how I am to be, act, speak, and move. They can operate how they desire for I chose and I still choose to let them choose. They can eat at My table or theirs. They choose.

21. Oh Ted, power, glory, majesty, splendor, gold, glass, brass, marble, dirt floors, linen, silk, holes, patches, toothless, aid-less, and aid-full—all Ted. I come to all and I come now and I come through you and I come through all who will let Me come through them.

22. How much do you want Me? How much will you give Me?—to work with? Will you give Me five fish and two loaves of bread?—Will you, will you, will you? Will you give Me whatever you can of Me, now, at this time, this day, and see what I do with what you give Me, of you, in Me?

23. Multiply, exponentialize, freedomize—give Me your pain, give Me your pleasure, and I will give you glory personified in the personhood of the New and Living Covenant with creativity and relationships that will sustain you exceeding anything mammon can gather.

24. Give Me a fish, give Me some bread, and let Me give you My bread and wine, and open to intimacy with Me that, in history has never been.

25. Shun Me or embrace Me, you choose, you choose, you choose. I like fish, I like bread and I like My wine—My wine—My wine, poured out on you like anointing oil, all over your person, and all that you are, all that you represent, all your heritage past and present, all over you, all over you—My wine, My oil, My Me—to heal and synergize and defeat that which has defeated you before.

26. My schools, My school, My schools to birth schools—
My freedom, My networks—for all to birth—
My freedom, My networks through them and theirs—
Freedom, power, synergy.

27. Write, write, write I say to you oh hearer and reader, and let Me walk you through My school for you where I teach you at My knee and empower you in manifestation shocking you.

28. Write, write, and write and fear not. Do you run - out of your mothers womb? Did you procreate the moment you were created? I have My principles, I have My rules, I have My law, I have My Word, I have My ways, and know that I am. And if and when, you and I are intimate—you grow, mature, advance, create, destroy, build, communicate and commune and powerful power the mammonized know nothing of.

29. I call for a re-orienting of understanding of how to walk with and work with those around you who are stepping out in Me, reaching out for a steadying hand, even as a toddler learning to walk, reaching out, reaching out, needing someone there—not to condemn, criticize, shout at and destroy—but to comfort, to assure, to whisper, and encourage and strength be to those open to Me.

30. Power, power, power—in meekness, meekness, meekness.
Power, power, power—in humility, in humility, in humility.
Power, power, power—in whispers, whispers, whispers.
Power, power, power—in comfort, in outstretched hands, in encouragement.

31. Teach My people to be teachable.
Teach My people to learn.
Teach My people to teach.
Teach My people to be tender, meek, powerful.

32. Concertize My people—My people in concert: led, conducted by Me, Me, Me, and as I call for a note here, a note there, move volume here, less volume there, quicker here, slower there, crescendo here, stop, start—listen to Me, watch Me, see Me, flow in Me as I flow into and through you.

33. Understand My pervasiveness into every facet of My creation. See Me, listen, see, listen to Me and open to Me and write I will, write I will—My laws, My commands, My Me—My values and My design—on your hearts, on your heart, on you, in you, all of you, so that your blood pumps with My blood.

34. Know Me, know Me, know Me.
I wait, I await you, I long for and await you.

35. Joel 2 has begun. Have you begun? Have you begun? Have you? I am coming now and at your door I am and begging to be heard. Please let Me be Me and mature My body as I desire to mature My body and permeate the earth and future generations with My power, My word, My words through My body, strengthening, strengthening, strengthening My body—with My body constantly stretching arms out to each other of confident assurance and encouragement, facilitating the formation of stallions, My stallions, stallions of Me, sons and daughters of sons and daughters, generations of generational friendships, building and synergizing for the Most High.

How to encourage.
How to set free.
How to synergize.
How to globalize.
How to generational be.
Teach, train, love, laugh, enjoy, graduate.

36. I know, you know, and you know that you know. Now confident be, more, more, and unshakably move forward in the shaking that I am doing in My world, My world, especially My religious world, and unshakable be.

Criticism no, condemnation no.
Courage yes, joy yes, laughter yes.

Provision abundant and abundantly over-abundant.
Campuses given—campuses built.
Creativity synergized, personified, simply Me, Me coming through My students, My sons and daughters, My friends, who I withhold nothing from, nothing, nothing, nothing at all.

37. I am. I am here. I am with you.
Move, go, run, run, run.
Ask more for helpers for so many want to help and want to be asked.

38. I will lead many to initiate but hesitate not to ask.

39. Empowered be, for empowered you are, you are, you are, and you know why—
Empower My Mine for Me and I thank you, I thank you, I thank you so much.

40. And I thank every reader/hearer who will open to Me.
Smile, smile, I come, I am.

41. I am the way, the truth and the light.